DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 17-32 are presented for examination. Claims 1-16 have been cancelled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Rejections withdrawn in light of the amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Rejections withdrawn in light of the amendment.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 17-32 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While Howie teaches that work orders are rescheduled when an operational even occurs, such as a machine breakdown, wherein the rescheduling of work orders includes assignment of workers. And Howie teaches a work order manager for arranging the schedule of a series of tasks to be performed on a part or on a set of parts.

And, Villanova teaches a plurality of substrate-related-operation performing machines each performs a substrate-related operation that is related to a circuit substrate.

Referring to independent claims 17 and 31, neither Howie nor Villanova, taken either alone or in obvious combination disclose a managing apparatus or program for managing an assisting work to assist a substrate-related-operation performing system having all the claimed features of applicant's instant invention, specifically including: a plurality of operation performing machines, the assisting work being carried out, as needed, when the substrate-related operation performing system is operated, and comprising at least one of a supplying work to supply a material or a part which is consumed or worn during the substrate-related operation, and a recovering work to remove a cause of a failure of at least one of operation performing machines, the managing apparatus assigning, each time a need to carry out the assisting work occurs, the assisting work to one of a plurality of workers.

Also, there is no motivation to combine Howie nor Villanova to meet these limitations. Claims 18-30 and 32 depend from claims 17 or 31 and are therefore also allowable. It is for these reasons that applicant's invention defines over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
